PART EXCHANGE TERMS & CONDITIONS

Availability

Part Exchange is available on selected Crest Nicholson homes. Terms and conditions apply.

The value of your Existing Home must be typically no more than 70% of your chosen Crest Nicholson home (your "New Home").

Your Existing Home

Your Existing Home:

- must be in a good state of repair and located in an area of the UK familiar to Crest Nicholson;
- must be of a standard method of construction
- if leasehold, must have at least 85 years unexpired term remaining.

Crest Nicholson is under no obligation to make an offer.

What do I have to do to be considered for Part Exchange

You need to:

- complete a Part Exchange Valuation Request form; and
- provide access to our representatives and appointed estate agents within 48 hours (excluding weekends) for the purposes of valuations and inspection of your Existing Home

How does Crest Nicholson make me an offer?

Crest Nicholson will appoint up to three independent estate agents to undertake valuations of your Existing Home.

Please note that these estate agents are instructed by Crest Nicholson and are not permitted to discuss figures with yourselves.

Following valuation and inspection of your Existing Home, if it is eligible for Part Exchange in accordance with these terms and conditions, we will make you an offer. The offer will specify a reasonable date by which you must accept the offer. If you do not accept the offer by the specified date it will no longer be capable of acceptance by you.

Any offer made by Crest Nicholson for your Existing Home will be subject to survey(s), an independent valuation and any necessary further enquiries or reports.

Crest Nicholson reserves the right not to consider or accept your Existing Home for Part Exchange. If this is the case, we will explain the reason for our decision. All valuations and decisions are final.

What happens after I accept an offer for my Existing Home?

Once you have accepted the offer you need to:

- complete a Reservation Agreement for your New Home and pay a reservation fee
- sign a copy of these Part Exchange Terms and Conditions

Under the Reservation Agreement, if you decide not to proceed with Part Exchange of your Existing Home for your New Home for any reason:

- before expiry of 10 calendar days from the date of the Reservation Agreement, the reservation fee will be refunded in full
- after the expiry of 10 calendar days from the date of the Reservation Agreement, we will already have instructed our solicitor to carry out work on our behalf therefore the reservation fee will be refunded less £500 towards our reasonable reservation administration and conveyancing costs unless the terms of the government's Help to Buy scheme apply, requiring a full refund.

If we decide not to proceed for any reason, then the reservation fee will be refunded in full.

Any refunds payable to you will be made within 10 working days of the date of notification of cancellation.

Will my New Home stay on the market?

Your New Home will remain on the market and can be reserved by another customer until a Reservation Form is completed and Part Exchange Terms and Conditions are signed.

What happens next?

After the Reservation Form is completed and Part Exchange Terms and Conditions are signed:

- we require your co-operation in allowing us to market your Existing Home straight away, ensuring that potential buyers have every chance to view your home. You agree to allow reasonable access to your Existing Home to:
 - facilitate the resale (subject to agreed appointments); and
 - for the instructed agent to erect a "For Sale" sign
- you will need to ensure your solicitor is instructed to proceed on your behalf and inform them of our 32-day exchange target, and 42 day Reservation Period under the terms of the Reservation Agreement.
- you agree to cancel any existing arrangements with any agents. Any agents' fees or commissions and VAT that may have been incurred by you prior to our agreement will remain your responsibility. Crest Nicholson will not accept liability towards any such costs or charges.

- any estate agents appointed by Crest Nicholson to market your existing property will be acting on our behalf and any fees and commissions for our appointed agents will be met by Crest Nicholson except where:
 - either party withdraws from the transaction; and
 - you complete the sale of your existing home to any individual introduced by our appointed agents during the period of our instructions; in which case you would be responsible for the agents' commission and VAT.
- both your purchase of your New Home and our purchase of your Existing Home are subject to contract, until simultaneous exchange of contracts has taken place on both transactions. The terms for the transfer of your Existing Home to Crest Nicholson will be on the basis of Crest Nicholson's standard contract with Part Exchange terms included
- you will need to accurately complete standard enquiries relating to your Existing Home issued by our solicitors. Since Crest Nicholson has no first-hand knowledge of your Existing Home, you agree that a future purchaser of the Existing Home will rely on your replies and you accept liability for any false or misleading replies
- your home and garden must be maintained to the same standard as when our valuations took place and the following items must remain in your Existing Home, unless written consent for removal has been obtained from Crest Nicholson:
 - fitted carpets
 - curtains
 - light fittings
 - blinds (venetian/vertical/roller etc)
 - fires and fire surrounds
 - fitted kitchens and all integrated appliances
 - fitted wardrobes
 - all items fixed to the wall (including bathroom cabinets, towel rails and other bathroom accessories).

Items in the garden including plants, shed and water features must also remain unless otherwise agreed in writing.

If there are specific items you wish to remove, these must be identified in the Reservation Form for your New Home. Removal of these items may necessitate replacement or reinstatement of walls, ceilings or floors to an acceptable standard, including the filling of any holes and repainting.

What documents do I need to supply to my solicitor for my Existing Home?

You will need to provide at your cost, prior to exchange of contracts:

- an electrical testing certificate for all electric equipment within your Existing Home to certify they are safe and in a full working condition
- an Energy Performance Certificate

What is required on Legal Completion of my New Home and my Existing Home?

On the day of legal completion:

- Full vacant possession of your Existing Home is required (i.e. the property must be left in a clean and tidy condition including the loft, and any outbuildings with only agreed items remaining)
- all utility bills for your Existing Home must be paid up to date, and meters read so that final bills can be forwarded on to you for payment. - you will receive the keys to your New Home once:
 - completion has taken place on your Existing Home; and
 - when it is confirmed that you have left 3 sets of keys with our appointed estate agent or ourselves, along with any alarm codes. You will be notified prior to legal completion where these keys are to be left. Any keys not provided may necessitate a locksmith being instructed on our behalf to replace locks and supply keys, the cost of which would be recovered from you.

When you move out of your Existing Home:

- it must be left in a clean and tidy condition including the loft, and any outbuildings with only agreed items remaining. A £500 retention fee will be held. This £500 will not be allowed against the price of your New Home on completion so you should budget for this.
- if your Existing Home is left in a reasonable condition and all keys are handed in by 4pm on the day of completion, the £500 retention fee will be refunded to your solicitor.
- If we have to use any of the £500 retention fee to make good the Property, we will pay any balance left to your solicitor once the making good works/cleaning are complete.
